

Sister Schools Resources Packet

The following are online educational resources and networks for incorporating a more international curriculum in your classroom:

Action Aid UK – Get Global

www.actionaid.org.uk/schoolsandyoung/getglobal

A free teacher's guide on how to facilitate and assess global citizenship.

Eduscapes – Teacher Tap

<http://eduscapes.com/tap/topic1.htm>

Online collaborative projects for librarians and educators.

Edutopia

www.edutopia.org

A resource on Project-Based learning including powerpoint presentations, step-by-step guides, videos and links.

ePals Global Community

www.ePALS.com

A service connecting classrooms in the U.S. to classrooms abroad through a safe internet and e-mail service. Also other technology-based projects.

eTwinning

<http://www.etwinning.net>

School partnerships and projects in Europe.

Foundation Center

www.foundationcenter.org

Instructions on grant-writing and proposals.

Girls Helping Girls

<http://www.empoweragirl.org>

Partners girls in the United States with girls in schools and community organizations in developing countries to jointly identify problems in their communities and work towards solutions.

Global Gateway

www.globalgateway.org

Great information about linking schools internationally in a variety of projects and initiatives. Free partner-finding, lesson plans, an online database of schools and more.

Global Learning Communities

<http://www.glc.me.uk>

A constituency of schools promoting the use of e-communications globally.

Global SchoolNet

<http://www.globalschoolnet.org>

Collaborative web-based content, consulting services and training materials for successful, globally-minded collaborative learning.

Intercultural E-mail Classroom Connections

www.iecc.org

A free service to help teachers link with partners in other cultures and countries for email classroom pen-pal and other project exchanges.

International Education and Resource Network

www.iEARN.com

A variety of ongoing international youth projects and the chance to start your own through an established network.

The Leland Initiative

<http://www.usaid.gov/leland/s2s-info.htm>

The initiative seeks to extend full internet connectivity to 20 African countries. The School-to-School partnership aims to facilitate cross-cultural dialogue and joint projects between newly connected African schools and schools abroad.

My Europe

<http://myeurope.eun.org>

Projects and resources addressing an integrated and diverse Europe.

National Association of Independent Schools

www.nais.org/go/challenge2020

Check out the Challenge 20/20 program, which works to pair up elementary and secondary schools with schools abroad for global projects.

National Geographic Education Network

www.ngsednet.org

An online service from National Geographic Society's Education & Children's Programs department with education news, professional development opportunities, resources, discussion, and much more.

NetAid

www.NetAid.org

Provides free curriculum topics and a network of high-school-aged leaders working to end global poverty.

Next Vista for Learning

<http://www.nextvista.org>

Helpful video resources for learning about other countries, including a by-and-for-teenagers video section.

Oxfam Education

<http://www.oxfam.org.uk/education>

Global Citizenship resources for teachers in England, Wales and Scotland.

Peace Corps Worldwide Schools

www.peacecorps.gov/wws

Classroom resources based on PeaceCorps volunteer experiences provide an excellent resource for international and cultural curriculum.

Rafiki

<http://rafi.ki>

An online learning community offering school partnerships, educational projects and avenues for global communication.

Scholastic – One World

www.teacher.scholastic.com/scholasticnews/indepth/one_world

Free materials for international learning including lessons, classroom activities and support tools.

SchoolNet Global

<http://www.schoolnetglobal.com>

International youth make personal webpages about their lives and thoughts.

Sister Schools

<http://sisterschools.org>

Partnering donor schools with schools in financial need.

U.N. Cyber School Bus

www.un.org/Pubs/CyberSchoolBus

Free U.N. curriculum and links to other educational resources for global education.