

X. Additional Resources to Help Guide Your Summit Planning

These websites might be useful as you develop and plan your Summit:

Citizen Diplomacy, Online Training Program

<http://www.colorado.edu/conflict/peace/treatment/citdip.htm>

Track II (Citizen) Diplomacy

http://www.intractableconflict.org/m/track2_diplomacy.jsp

Great Decisions, America's longest standing global education program

http://www.fpa.org/info-url_nocat2402/info-url_nocat.htm

Network for Good (recruiting volunteers)

<http://www.networkforgood.org/Npo/volunteers/default.aspx>

National Issues Forums

<http://www.nifi.org/>

Glocalization-“Empowers local communities, linking them to global resources and facilitating initiatives of peace and development, while providing opportunities for local communities to direct positive social change in areas that most affect them.”

<http://topics.developmentgateway.org/glocalization>

COMMUNITY FORUM WEBSITES

Chicago, IL: Global Chicago Center

www.globalchicago.org

Springfield, IL: Springfield International

www.springfieldinternational.org

Pittsburgh, PA: Global Pittsburgh

http://www.globalpittsburgh.org/index_flash.jsp

COALITION FOR CITIZEN DIPLOMACY STAFF CONTACTS

Sarabecka Mullen

Alliance for International Educational and Cultural Exchange

smullen@alliance-exchange.org

202-293-6141

Emily Carter

Sister Cities International

ecarter@siter-cities.org

202-3478630 ext. 4005

Nicole Spencer

Partners of the Americas

nspencer@partners.net

202-637-6205

Ljiljana Komnenic

World Affairs Council

ljiljana@worldaffairscouncils.org

202-833-4557

Lindsay Williams (before July 8, 2005)

National Council for International Visitors (NCIV)

lwilliams@nciv.org

202/842-1414

Mark Overmann (after July 8, 2005)

National Council for International Visitors (NCIV)

movermann@nciv.org

202/842-1414